Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To whom it my concern:

It is with great joy and confidence that I recommend Danimar G. Yanga for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I had the privilege of being Danimar's teacher during his elementary years, and even at a young age, he stood out as a student of character, compassion, and leadership.

Danimar consistently showed a deep concern for others and a genuine desire to make a positive difference in his surroundings. As a Grade 6 class officer, he led several classroom projects, including a reading buddy program where older students would assist younger ones who struggled with reading. This initiative not only improved reading skills but also built friendships and confidence among the pupils.

What impressed me most about Danimar was his humility and his eagerness to serve quietly. He never sought recognition, but his actions always made an impact. As a student, he was focused, respectful, and driven. He consistently performed well in academics and earned several awards in both academics and values education.
