Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is with great pride that I recommend Zaira Formilos Miraflor for your scholarship program. As her teacher and witness to her remarkable journey throughout high school, I can confidently say that Zaira is a student who embodies academic excellence, servant leadership, and a passion for meaningful community engagement.

Zaira consistently ranked at the top of her class, earning High Honors and being recognized as the Overall Best in Mathematics and Top Performer in her batch. Her intellectual discipline is matched by her leadership in various school organizations, most notably as President of the BNAHS Math Society Club, where she initiated and led a Tutorial Program in Mathematics that improved student performance and confidence in math across grade levels.

Beyond academics, Zaira has demonstrated exceptional skills serving as the Overall Head Tutor in the Chemistry Catalysts Circle, the Student Host and Master of Ceremonies for multiple school-wide events, and a School Presentor at the International Cultural Exchange in Texas, where she showcased the richness of Filipino heritage to global audiences.

Her journey is defined not just by success, but by how she uplifts others along the way. I have no doubt that this scholarship will not only support her, but also multiply her capacity to serve and inspire.

I strongly and wholeheartedly recommend her for your scholarship program.
