Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Alaisah Mohamad Alie, as the Program and Invitation Committee Chair, played a central role in the overall success of the event "Hands-on Learning, Hands-on Earning: Livelihood Program for ALS and Community Growth" held on March 8, 2025 at Moreno Integrated School.

With strong leadership and genuine passion, she took full responsibility for designing a program flow that was organized, inclusive, and impactful, not just for ALS learners, but also for partners, guests, and community members. From drafting invitations to coordinating schedules and guest speakers, she worked with both precision and heart.

She ensured that every detail from the welcome remarks to the closing activities, reflected the program's goal: empowering learners through meaningful, hands-on experiences. More than fulfilling tasks, she also made everyone feel seen, valued, and welcomed whether it was a student, facilitator, or guest.

Her dedication to this role reflects a deep sense of service and a sincere commitment to making learning more relevant and life-changing for ALS students. The success and warmth of the event were greatly due to the care and leadership that Alaisah Mohamad Alie, brought as committee chair.
