Recommendation

I am pleased to formally recommend Aljamar Rahim Avila for your esteemed scholarship program. In the 2023-2024 academic year, Aljamar held the position of Supreme Secondary Learner's president at Sabang National High School and Calabanga District Federated Supreme Secondary Learner Government as Secretary. Throughout this time, he has demonstrated exceptional dedication to his academic pursuits and extracurricular activities, showcasing strong leadership, unwavering commitment, and a profound sense of responsibility.

Aljamar has consistently showcased his leadership skills through his role in the student government. He has effectively organized events that foster community spirit, engaged fellow students in meaningful discussions, and advocated for their needs and concerns. His ability to collaborate with peers and faculty alike has made a significant impact on our school environment, encouraging a culture of inclusivity and respect.

Academically, Aljamar excels in his studies, maintaining a high GWA while participating in various extracurricular activities such as one of the School Paper writers. His commitment to learning is evident in his proactive approach to his education, often going beyond the curriculum to deepen his understanding of subjects. Aljamar's analytical skills and critical thinking abilities set him apart as a top student in his class last school year in Grade 12.

Moreover, Aljamar's involvement in community service initiatives reflects his character and dedication to making a positive difference. Aljamar led and attended various positions, programs, projects and activities within and outside Sabang National High School from School Year 2023-2025 such as:

- Brigada Eskwela Committee Chairperson
- Grade 7 and 11 Representative Election Chairman
- ClubHunt 2023 Event Head
