Recommendation

Warmest greetings of peace and hope.

It is with great honor and deep conviction that I write this letter of recommendation in support of Ms. Janela Mhae L. Concepcion's application for the Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD) Scholarship. As a youth leader and SK Councilor of Barangay Cupang, I have had the privilege of closely witnessing Janela's growth—not only as a student with remarkable potential, but also as a young leader with a heart for service and transformation.

Janela is a dynamic and values-driven individual. She actively serves as a youth officer in our local church, where she leads with compassion, humility, and faith. Her consistent involvement in church-based outreach activities, spiritual gatherings, and youth leadership programs speaks volumes about her commitment to uplifting others. She is often one of the first to volunteer and one of the last to leave, ensuring that every activity—whether big or small—leaves a meaningful impact.

In the broader community, Janela is also well-known for her respectful demeanor, strong moral compass, and proactive attitude. She has joined several community initiatives and SK-led projects, always displaying genuine concern for others, especially the younger children and fellow students in need. Her ability to work with people from various backgrounds, combined with her openness to learning and growing, makes her a standout among her peers.

She is goal-oriented and understands the value of education not just for personal success, but as a tool to serve others. Her motivation stems from a sincere desire to uplift her community and be a positive influence to the youth around her. With her strong foundation in leadership, faith, and service, I am confident that she will maximize the opportunities given to her and continue to grow as a socially responsible and compassionate individual.

She is not just a promising student—she is a servant leader in the making.

I wholeheartedly recommend Janela Mhae L. Concepcion for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I am confident that she will carry with her the ideals of your foundation and make you proud as a future alumna. Should you require any further information, I am more than willing to assist.

Thank you for considering her application.
