Aside from being Angel's Grade 12 class adviser, I have also been her subject teacher since her junior high school years. Over time, Angel has demonstrated commendable leadership skills. She has been an active class officer, holding key positions such as class president and vice-president. In Grade 11, she was elected as the grade-level representative to the student council. Angel has successfully led both her class and grade level in various activities and programs. She consistently advocates for the concerns of her classmates and batch mates whenever issues arise. Well-loved and respected by her peers, Angel is frequently chosen as a group leader during performance tasks, where she consistently guides her team to achieve excellent results. Despite the many responsibilities she held, Angel maintained a high academic standing and was one of the top performers in her grade level. Additionally, she received the St. Marie Eugenie Award, the highest honor bestowed upon those who best exemplify the values of Assumpta's Mother Foundress, for three consecutive years.

As part of her formation in social responsibility, Angel led and participated in various community activities. Since junior high school, she took part in the school's outreach programs such as Share-a-Care, Share-a-Labor, and Share-a-Skill. These programs involved providing financial assistance and engaging with marginalized communities, cleaning their respective parishes every December, and sharing the skills they learned in their Technology and Livelihood Education subject. She also spearheaded an initiative to donate to the children at the Children's Home of Mary of the Eucharist in Telabastagan. Additionally, Angel was an active member of the Children of Mary Immaculate (COMI) at Nuestra Señora Del Pilar Parish.

Angel's outstanding character, exemplary leadership, and remarkable intelligence have truly distinguished her as one of the most exceptional learners in our school community. Having had the privilege of guiding her for several years, I have personally witnessed her unwavering dedication and deep love, not only for her family but also for her classmates, teachers, and the entire Assumpta community. apart is her genuine compassion and selflessness; she is consistently motivated by her aspirations, yet her goals are always centered on uplifting and supporting the people around her. Her ability to lead with both heart and mind, combined with her strong sense of responsibility and empathy, assures me that she will continue to make a meaningful and positive impact wherever she goes. I wholeheartedly recommend Angel, confident that she embodies the qualities of a true leader and a compassionate individual who will inspire and contribute greatly to any community she joins.
