Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

With a lot of pride and without any reservation, I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Ms. Kristel P. Camique, a young woman who has proven herself to be an earnest, honest, and responsible student and a good citizen of our community.

Kristel has been a very active resident of our barangay, and her influence has been so inspiring. She has proven to be a responsible citizen with great compassion even at her young age. She has attended outreach programs, health campaigns, community safety drills and youth-led initiatives that have had a direct impact on our residents. From participating in barangay clean-up drives to being a youth representative in the inter-school and inter-barangay activities, Kristel has never failed to perform more than what is expected of her.

What sets Kristel apart is her ability to balance academic excellence with a deep commitment to service. Despite the pressures of being a student, she continues to step up for her community without hesitation. Her maturity, respect towards others and the desire to assist who is in-need is really admirable. She is a go-getter, trustworthy and most of the time, a leader way ahead of her years.

Kristel is born in a family of service. Her mother is a veteran midwife in our barangay, and she has been a reliable source of health services to us. Kristel is a mirror of the same service-oriented heart of her mother-kind, approachable, and willing to help. In a sense, she is already walking in her mother's shoes and is much interested in health-related matters and is a volunteer in a medical and disaster preparedness program.

I strongly believe that Kristel P. Camique will succeed wherever excellence, service and leadership are appreciated. She is morally sound, focused, and goal-driven and thus an excellent candidate to any scholarship or academic opportunity.

I am recommending her with a lot of confidence, and I am sure that she will utilize such an opportunity not only to improve herself, but also to serve her community and country with pride.

Thank you for your consideration.
