Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom It May Concern

With great satisfaction and confidence, I am writing this letter of recommendation for Ken B. Mamantong, a Punong Grande National High School graduate. As his teacher, I've had the pleasure of observing Ken's development and accomplishments during his time at our school. He is a young man with remarkable character, academic achievement, and leadership abilities.

Ken is a remarkable student at Punong Grande National High School, known not only for his academic excellence but also for his outstanding leadership qualities. As a consistent honor student, Ken has maintained high grades across all subjects, demonstrating discipline, intellectual curiosity, and a strong commitment to learning.

What truly sets Ken apart, however, is his ability to inspire and lead others. He has served in key leadership roles, such as Vice President of Supreme Secondary Learner Government, where he spearheaded projects that benefitted both the school and the local community. Whether organizing school-wide events, leading outreach programs, or mentoring fellow students, Ken exhibits integrity, responsibility, and initiative in everything he does.
