Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As the pastor of PH0538 Banaybanay Christian Children Development Center (BCCDC), I have had the joy of witnessing Jedidiah B. De Ocampo grow not only in faith, but also in character, responsibility, and leadership. I have known her since she was 4 years old, and in that time, I have seen her consistently demonstrate qualities that reflect integrity, compassion, and a deep desire to serve both God and the people around her.

Despite facing financial limitations, she has shown an unwavering commitment to her education and personal growth. She is an active member of our youth ministry, where she has served as a youth leader, event coordinator, and small group facilitator. In each of these roles, she has displayed initiative, reliability, and a willingness to sacrifice her time and energy for the benefit of others. Her leadership is not loud or self-seeking; rather, it is rooted in humility and love, always seeking to lift others up and be a good example.

One of her most impactful contributions has been her involvement in our community outreach programs. She has volunteered in feeding missions, led prayer and devotional sessions for younger children, and helped organize donation drives during calamities. These efforts have made a tangible difference in the lives of many underprivileged families in our barangay. Through her actions, she has inspired other young people in the church to become more engaged in service as well.

What I admire most about her is her heart. She serves not for recognition, but because she truly cares. Her academic dedication, leadership within our faith community, and concern for the well-being of others all reflect a young woman with great potential to lead and make a positive impact on a larger scale.

I wholeheartedly endorse her application to the PCAFPD. I believe she is not only deserving due to financial need, but also because she has the heart, mindset, and character of a true servant-leader. I am confident that with your support, she will continue to grow into someone who brings lasting change to her community and beyond.
