Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I have known Mr. Lituania since 2022 for he was then a Senior High School learner at our school. Truly, I only have good words to say about him - bright, humble, diligent, resilient, and persevering.

From what I can attest, he was indeed one of the most visible and active learners of his batch. From 2022 to 2024, he led our press corps in his capacity as its Editor-in-Chief. During his tenure, he spearheaded different publication projects and insightful pursuits that, until now, are resounding testaments of his legacy. Even though he graduated two school years ago, members of our student paper still have high regard and esteem for him. From his humble beginnings to clinching the highest post of our student publication, his leadership, diligence, and strong sense of communion were truly noteworthy.

On top of his commitment to our campus publication, he was also an active officer of our Supreme Secondary Learners Government and our club for environmental stewardship. In this capacity, he is often a regular member of our student delegation when we attend community outreach works in marginalized areas and far-flung communities in the City of Antipolo, Rizal. In these instances, I observed him to be enthusiastic and well-grounded.

Even though the activities of the student clubs he was part of were demanding and unrelenting at times, Mr. Lituania never let it encumber his academic obligations. In his two years in Senior High School, he was a consistent quarterly achiever. This culminated when he graduated with flying colors for which he received the Academic Excellence Award – With High Honors. Now, he is a continuing freshman student at UP – Los Baños, one of the country’s most prestigious higher education institutions.

In my long career, I only encountered several individuals who really left me impressed. Confidently, Mr. Lituania is one of these people.

Despite his personal hardships, he juggles his work, studies, and organizational commitments thoroughly and excellently. I am really amazed by his independence, his diskarte, his resilience, and his positive disposition to life amidst all the challenges he has overcome and are currently going through. He does all these things by being an industrious student, a reliable friend, and a loving child to his mama and lola.

I am confident that whatever form of assistance you will provide him, you will never regret it. I know he will appreciate it with great consideration and resourcefulness. It will help him significantly in his studies, and in his further development as a law-abiding and God-fearing citizen. Surely, when the time comes, he will go back and thank you for all the help that your esteemed institution has so kindly extended to him.

As a young person living in a modest background yet full of dreams and ambitions, he will never fail you.
