Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am proud to recommend Fernando Javier for your scholarship program. Fernando is an exceptional student who blends creativity, leadership, and purpose in everything he does. His passion for the arts, combined with a genuine desire to serve others, makes him stand out not just in the classroom, but in our entire school community.

He was also chosen President of our school's Arts Club, a role he earned through the trust and respect of both his teachers and fellow students. Under his leadership, the club has grown more active and inclusive—hosting workshops, art exhibits, and outreach events that encourage younger students to explore their creativity.

He has also received multiple awards in the field of visual arts, including recognition in painting and digital illustration categories at interschool and regional contests. What sets him apart is that he doesn't create art just for accolades—he often uses it to raise awareness about important issues, like mental health and environmental protection. His work speaks not only of skill but also of heart and intention.

In recognition of his service and influence, Fernando was also given a Leadership Award, highlighting his ability to inspire, organize, and make a lasting impact in our school. He is dependable, driven, and always willing to guide others, especially those who need encouragement to find their own voice.

If you're looking for a scholar who has both artistic excellence and a strong sense of social responsibility, Fernando is the kind of individual who will not only make the most of your support but will also pay it forward in meaningful ways. I strongly believe he is ready for the next chapter, and your scholarship could help him reach even greater heights.
