Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

The student has consistently demonstrated diligence and attentiveness in their learning. They actively participate in class discussions and activities. They showed genuine interest in the subject matter. They are obedient and respectful toward teachers and classmates alike. They reliably follow instructions and complete tasks on time. Beyond academics, the student is well-liked by nearly all of their classmates, known for being friendly and approachable. Their strong work ethic, positive attitude, and ability to build good relationships make them valuable members of the classroom community.
