Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my distinct honor to recommend Mr. Asebuque as a candidate for your prestigious scholarship program. As Principal of Colegio de San Juan de Letran Calamba, I have had the opportunity to observe Jeremiah's development as a student and young leader, and I can attest to his exemplary academic record, admirable character, and commitment to excellence.

Throughout his years in the Senior High School Department, Jeremiah has consistently maintained an impressive academic standing, earning recognition as an honor student. His performance across subject areas reflects not only intellectual aptitude but also discipline, perseverance, and a strong sense of responsibility.

What distinguishes Jeremiah is his maturity and sense of purpose. He approaches every academic task with diligence and thoughtfulness, meeting expectations with consistency and often exceeding them. He is equally dependable in collaborative settings, where he demonstrates sound judgment, respect for others' perspectives, and the ability to lead when necessary.

Beyond the classroom, Jeremiah contributes positively to the school community. He carries himself with humility and integrity, earning the respect of his peers and the trust of his teachers. His conduct is always guided by respect, and he is quick to respond to guidance with sincerity and openness.

I am confident that Jeremiah will bring the same level of commitment and excellence to your program as he has to our institution. He is a promising young individual whose potential is matched by his work ethic and values. I strongly endorse his application and trust that he will make meaningful contributions wherever he is given the opportunity.
