Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Mr. Neil Ralph Gimeno was my former student whom I trusted in terms of leading the class. Being the class president, he has the ability to lead his classmates in their activities and requirements. In times that I am not around, he was always the person whom I gave my instructions because he can deliver it to his classmates very well. I also noticed that I am not the only teacher who trusted Mr. Gimeno, even other teachers trusted him.

Aside from his leadership skills, Mr. Gimeno was a constant honor student. He was able to maintain the grades to be an honor student despite his busy schedules. He was diligent in studying his lessons, he was very participative in class and shows remarkable outputs in the subject areas. He was also very active in class activities and would always be chosen as a leader not only by the teachers but also by his fellow classmates.

Mr. Gimeno is also very talented, he was good in dancing. He was in fact one of our dance sports performers aside from he was a member of our school's cultural dance group. Aside from dancing he can also speak well, thus, he may be tasked to become a host or speaker in an event. Mr. Gimeno also has entrepreneurial skills which he demonstrated during our Business Simulation and Operation of a Micro Business Enterprise in the Barangay where their group through his leadership received a lot of awards.

This scholarship will be a big help for Mr. Gimeno to explore and hone his capabilities, to reach his dreams and become one of the professionals that can help our society. Coming from a humble household, with so much potentials, Mr. Neil Ralph Gimeno is qualified to be one of the PCAFPD chosen scholars.
