Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As the Barangay Captain of Santo Niño, I have personally witnessed the commendable efforts of Ace Jariel A. Sunio in extending his leadership, service, and talents beyond the school and into our community. His active involvement in various barangay activities has greatly contributed to the success of programs aimed at engaging the youth and fostering unity among residents.

Ace has volunteered his time and skills in organizing cultural presentations, leading dance and performance numbers during community events, and assisting in programs that promote health, education, and youth empowerment.

His integrity, sense of responsibility, and ability to inspire others have earned him the respect of both his peers and our community. Through his contributions, Ace has shown that true leadership extends beyond titles—it is about serving others wholeheartedly and making a positive impact wherever possible.

Ace Jariel A. Sunio stands as a role model for the youth of Barangay Santo Niño, embodying the values of dedication, volunteerism, and community spirit.
