Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am honored to write this reference for Mark Anthony Lazaga, a true servant leader in our congregation. Mark stepped into a leadership role within our church, and his ability to speak and inspire has motivated our congregation. Although he may be young, his evident dedication to volunteering his time has greatly contributed to the activities of the youth and the church. He possesses a unique gift for bringing people together, fostering an inclusive environment where each individual feels valued. He is the type of person who is friendly and accommodating. Furthermore, Mark has shown exemplary leadership in youth mentorship programs. As someone who was once a student, he now understands that the future of our church and community lies in the hands of our young people. He actively participates in our workshops and mentorship opportunities. He is now one of the leaders of the youth. He is helping to empower the next generation to embrace their faith and develop their talents in singing, prayer, and service. I have also observed that he takes his classes seriously. He is studious and sometimes compromises his sleep due to academic commitments. I wholeheartedly recommend Mark for this opportunity. It is my prayer that you recognize the immense potential he brings and the positive changes he contributes to as a role model for his fellow young people.
