Recommendation

I had the pleasure of teaching Renz at Calubcub I Senior High School, where I saw not only his keen aptitude for complex problem-solving but also his genuine kindness toward his classmates. His dedication to mastering difficult concepts was clear—he rarely hesitated to help peers understand challenging material, showing both patience and confidence. Even then, he stood out for his quiet leadership: organized study sessions and encouraged others to keep going, especially when things got tough.

Beyond his academic strengths, Renz was deeply involved in our school community—whether organizing clean-up efforts or helping younger students catch up after absences. He wasn't the loudest voice in the room, but his actions spoke volumes; he quietly took on responsibility and made things happen. His humility, combined with a heartfelt desire to lift others, made him someone people naturally trusted and followed.

Now preparing to begin his BS Civil Engineering journey at Batangas State University – Alangilan Campus, Renz brings not just intelligence, but integrity, resilience, and a collaborative spirit that will serve him well. I have no doubt that he'll continue making meaningful contributions, whether through leadership roles, community initiatives, or simply by offering support when it's needed. I enthusiastically recommend him for your scholarship program—he truly deserves the opportunity to develop his promise and help build better futures.

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.
