Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am writing this letter to enthusiastically endorse Ms. Ellise for your scholarship program. Ms. Ellise is one of the most exceptional and well-rounded people I have ever met, and I have had the pleasure of getting to know her and educating her during her time as a student.

Ms. Ellise possesses a remarkable leadership quality whether in leading group activities or organizing classroom initiatives. Just so you know, she is also a highly gifted young woman who helped our school create its very first school hymn. She demonstrates responsibility, initiative and the ability to inspire others. She is also a natural leader and a trustworthy team player because of her excellent communication abilities, which enable her to respectfully and clearly voice her opinions.

In addition to her competence in the classroom, where she continuously performed exceptionally well, Ms. Ellise is notable for her ethical character. She truly cares and is always willing to help, not just her teachers but also her classmates. Her ability to establish rapport and create a positive atmosphere in every situation demonstrates her maturity and empathy. Ms. Ellise is well deserving of this scholarship because of her unwavering commitment to both personal growth and serving others. Instead than looking for recognition, she looks for opportunities to make a difference both within and outside of the classroom. I have no doubt that she will continue to be an asset to any institution she becomes part of.

I wholeheartedly recommend Ms. Ellise for your scholarship. She will continue to excel as a student and as a person, and I have no doubt that she will uphold the values and responsibilities that come with this opportunity.
