Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pride and enthusiasm that I recommend Ms. Chrizyl Ann B. Ebrado, a former Grade 12 student under the Contemporary Arts subject at Apas National High School. Chrizyl has consistently demonstrated exceptional academic performance, commendable work ethic, and admirable character throughout her Senior High School journey.

During her time with us, Chrizyl displayed remarkable creativity, critical thinking, and dedication to her studies. Her commitment to excellence was evident in every project and academic task she undertook, ultimately earning her the recognition of "With Honors" during our Senior High School graduation.

Beyond her academic achievements, Chrizyl Ann has also shown an inspiring sense of responsibility and service to others. She served as a member of the Emergency Response Team at Apas National High School, where she exhibited leadership, teamwork, and the ability to remain calm and dependable in critical situations. Her involvement in this team reflects her willingness to contribute to the safety and well-being of her peers and community.

I am confident that Chrizyl will continue to excel and make meaningful contributions in any endeavor she pursues. Her combination of academic excellence, leadership skills, and genuine concern for others makes her an outstanding individual worthy of any
