Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD)

Dear Scholarship Committee,

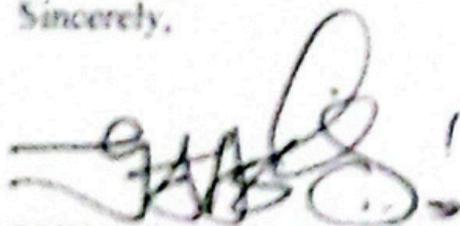

I am writing to enthusiastically recommend Mr. Jayson Faye Villalobos, a student of mine at the College of Education, Notre Dame University, for your academic scholarship program. As his professor in both Professional Education and major subjects, I have had the privilege of witnessing firsthand his diligence, determination, and unwavering commitment to academic excellence.

Jayson has consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic, always submitting well-prepared assignments and actively participating in class discussions. What sets him apart is his remarkable ability to work effectively under pressure - a quality that I believe is essential for any scholar and future leader. Whether it's meeting tight deadlines, managing multiple responsibilities, or navigating academic challenges, Jayson approaches tasks with focus, resilience, and a calm determination.

Beyond the classroom, he embodies the values that the Peace Corps Alumni Foundation stands for - service, integrity, and a deep commitment to community development. I have no doubt that Jayson will make meaningful contributions not only to the academic community but also to the broader goals of sustainable development and peace-building in the Philippines.

I strongly recommend Mr. Jayson Faye Villalobos for your scholarship program and am confident that [he/she/they] will exceed your expectations. Should you require any additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

GINNA T. ASTILLERO, EdD
