Recommendation

I am writing to recommend Mr. Marvin P. Datu for your scholarship program. As the School Registrar of the Sisters of Mary School–Adlas, Inc., I have come to know Marvin not only through his academic records but also through his active involvement in our school community. He is one of those students who truly stands out because of his consistency, discipline, and determination.

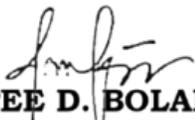

Marvin has always been a strong student, particularly in science, where he shows both interest and talent. He maintains good grades across subjects and is known for submitting requirements on time and with quality. What I find commendable is that he does not only study for himself—he is willing to guide his classmates when they need help, showing that he values teamwork and shared learning.

In addition to his academic achievements, Marvin is also active in leadership and extracurricular activities. As the Supreme Student Government General Secretary, he has taken part in organizing student activities and representing the student body. He is also a campus journalist and debater, where he earned recognition in competitions. These roles reflect his ability to balance academics and responsibilities, while still performing well in both.

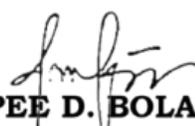

What makes Marvin deserving of this opportunity is not only his academic ability or leadership, but also his character. Coming from a humble family background, he has shown resilience and focus in pursuing his studies. He understands the value of education and sees it to improve not only his own life but also the life of his family and the community he belongs to.

I believe that with the support of your scholarship, Marvin will continue to excel and reach his full potential. He has the qualities of a responsible and hardworking student who will use his education in meaningful ways. I fully support his application and recommend him with confidence.

PCAFPD scholars are chosen based on their financial needs, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant
