Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to recommend Aira Celine C. Celso for your scholarship program wholeheartedly. I had the pleasure of teaching her in my English class of Grade 11- Lavender (STEM) at Tinajeros National High School, and I can confidently say that she is among the most dedicated and hardworking students I have encountered.

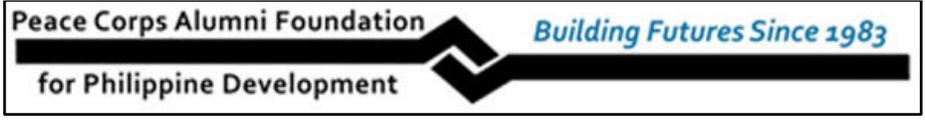

Academically, Aira has consistently demonstrated excellence, curiosity, and diligence. She is ranked among the top students in our class and is known for her thoughtful contributions to discussions and strong analytical skills. Beyond academics, she was actively involved in various school activities, which included being the school's representative at Modified Impromptu Speech Competition during the Language Proficiency Week, in which she won the 2nd Place, and was actively involved in the school publication, showing both leadership and teamwork.

What sets Ms. Celso apart is not only her qualifications but also her deep motivation and drive but also facing financial challenges. Coming from a family with limited financial means, she has had to excel as an outstanding academic student despite hardship in educational opportunities. This scholarship would significantly ease the financial burden on her family and allow her to focus on achieving even greater academic and personal success.

I am confident that Aira Celine Celso will make the most of the opportunity your scholarship provides. She possesses the intelligence, character, and perseverance to thrive and contribute positively to your academic community. Please feel free to contact me should you require any further information.
