Recommendation

[PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.]

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Charlene Asuncion, who has demonstrated qualities in both character and performance as a faithful servant in ministry and as an individual under my supervision at the religious youth organization of the Word of Life church named Bunch of Mighty Believers.

I witnessed her strengths in writing, public speaking, serving particularly the young people in our community. She has exhibited qualities of a good leader and follower. She is a reliable and diligent team member in our Children Ministry, Media Ministry and Youth Ministry.

One of the most remarkable qualities of Charlene is her willingness to learn and drive for excellence. These qualities, combined with positive and God-fearing attitude, make her an asset to any team or organization.

I am confident that Charlene will bring the same level of dedication, skill, and integrity to Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD) Undergraduate Scholarship, particularly in contributing to the vision of Philippine development. Her proven ability to serve, lead, and uplift others will enable her to make meaningful contributions to her community and to the country's progress. I strongly recommend her without reservation and believe she will be a valuable contributor wherever she goes.

Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me on the above-mentioned email address. Thank you.
