Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my great pleasure to recommend Ms. Jamaila Gomez for your respected scholarship program. As her former teacher at Putting Kahoy National High School, I have had the privilege of watching her grow into an outstanding student, a natural leader, and a talented young artist.

Miss Gomez stands out for her academic excellence especially in English, Math, and Science. She consistently earns high grades and approaches her studies with both discipline and creativity. She doesn't just learn from textbooks, but she finds ways to connect what she learns in the classroom to real-life situations, making her education meaningful and practical.

What truly sets her apart is her remarkable interest in literature and talent in the arts. Whether she's working on visual art, design, or creative projects, her work always shows originality, technical skill, and a unique perspective. Her love for Ghibli movies and anime reflects on her taste in arts. Her art has received recognition in school events and has inspired her classmates to value creativity and self-expression. As president of the Literature, Culture, and Arts (LICA) Club during her Senior High School years, she uses her leadership to encourage and motivate others, generously sharing her skills and passion.

Beyond her achievements, Jamaila is a person of integrity, humility, and compassion. She is respectful, reliable, and genuinely cares about those around her. As a leader, she shows initiative, works well with others, and is always ready to serve her community. She also stand as her class's peer tutor, especially in Mathematics where she helped her classmates learn and understand concepts and competencies taught by their teacher.
