Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend Joshua David C. Burbano as an applicant for the PCAFPD scholarship. He is a quiet but very responsible student who consistently shows dedication in both his studies and his service to the school community. He is a consistent honor student and has maintained strong academic performance throughout his Junior and Senior high school years. As an SSLG officer, he has been actively involved in school activities. He helped manage official SSLG publication materials and announcements, and he took part in various school campaigns and projects. Even with these responsibilities, he never allowed his academics to suffer. This shows his maturity and ability to manage his time well. What makes Joshua stand out is his leadership style. Though he is not the most outspoken, he leads through action, reliability, and sincerity. His service has made a positive impact on the school, and he is well-respected by both teachers and his peers. With his solid academic record, responsible leadership, and genuine commitment to service, I strongly believe Joshua would be a deserving recipient of the PCAFPD scholarship. God Bless and All is well.

Sincerely,

MARK LOUIE S. RAMISCAL
Special Science Teacher I/SSLG Adviser
