Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Mel John P. Calapiz has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership, academic excellence, and commitment to service. As my former student, I have witnessed his ability to lead with both confidence and humility. He served as President of the Youth for Environment in Schools Organization (YES-O), where he successfully organized impactful community projects such as charity drives, environmental clean-up campaigns, and peer tutoring sessions.

His achievements speak for themselves: With Honor Graduate, Service Awardee, Best in Organization and Management, Best in Research, and other recognitions that highlight both his intellectual capability and organizational skills. These accolades are a testament to his hard work, perseverance, and genuine concern for others.

Despite these accomplishments, Mel John faces significant financial challenges. As a balik-Islam whose mother is ill and a full-time housewife, and whose father is a construction worker earning minimum wage, his family cannot sustain the cost of his college education. Yet, his determination to pursue higher education and his proven record of leadership, academic excellence, and service show that he has the potential to succeed and make even greater contributions to his community if given the opportunity.

I strongly recommend Mel John P. Calapiz for support, confident that any assistance extended to him will be an investment in a dedicated, talented, and service-oriented young leader. In Sha Allah.
