Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As a former elementary teacher and school journalism adviser of Ms. Wenadel Payales, I can confidently say that she is truly a student worth admiring—not only for her outstanding academic performance across all subjects but also for her commendable leadership as the SPG President of Bikal Elementary School. She consistently brought honor to our school, excelling in every competition she joined, reaching the highest levels not only in journalism but also in other academic contests. Despite facing financial challenges, she remained determined in her studies, using these difficulties as motivation to achieve her dreams—not just for herself, but most especially for her family. For this reason, I firmly believe that granting her this scholarship will greatly support her in completing her education and, in turn, enable her to help her family.
