Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Marjel Dela Cruz is an active member of our barangay. She is a hardworking student who shows great potential both in academics and leadership. She is also a commendable citizen, often participating in activities that benefit the majority. In fact, she volunteers her time to help in the barangay office with digital tasks and encoding processes that often go beyond the regular workload of our staff. She is always willing to offer help when needed and gladly accepts requests for assistance.

Recently, Marjel passed the entrance examination and will be admitted to a course that perfectly aligns with her passion for the community and society—Bachelor of Arts in Sociology. The university she will be attending is not only one of the best in the country but is also ranked as the top university in Mindanao. This achievement is a true reflection of her dedication and potential.

As she now prepares to enter tertiary education, I've learned that she is actively searching for scholarships to help support her needs—especially since studying in the city comes with higher living expenses. I personally know her family, and I've seen how her mother, Mrs. Mary Jane Dela Cruz, works hard as a single parent to provide for her children: one currently reviewing for the board exam, one about to enter college, and one in junior high school.

That's why I'm truly grateful and proud to know that PCAFPD offers a scholarship that can support students like Marjel. This opportunity would not only help a promising future leader move closer to her dreams but also ease the financial burden of her hardworking mother.

Marjel has been a consistent high honor student since elementary and continues to bring pride to our barangay. She sets a strong example for the younger generation—proving that with determination and effort, honor and excellence can be achieved.
