Recommendation

It is with immense pleasure that I recommend Lian Venice Fazon for admission to your program, I have had the privilege of knowing Lian as her teacher/advisor at Father Saturnino Urios University for the past 2 years. During this time, she has consistently impressed me with her academic abilities and exemplary character.

Academically, Lian Venice Fazon is a high-achieving student who demonstrates a strong work ethic and a genuine passion for learning. She consistently performs at the top of her class, exhibiting a remarkable aptitude for all subjects. Her intellectual curiosity is evident in her insightful contributions to class discussions and her dedication to completing assignments to the highest standard.

Beyond her academic achievements, Lian Venice Fazon possesses a commendable set of character strengths. She is a responsible and dependable individual, always meeting deadlines and fulfilling her commitments. She is also a highly collaborative team player, working effectively with her peers to achieve shared goals. Her respectful and courteous demeanour makes her a valued member of our school community. Furthermore, she displays a remarkable level of maturity and integrity in all her endeavours.

Lian Venice Fazon is a truly exceptional student who possesses the intellectual capacity, work ethic, and strong character traits necessary to excel in any endeavour she undertakes. I highly recommend her without reservation. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,
Jesson Norman Andales
