Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

Dear Admission Committee,

I write this letter of recommendation for Dana Cabantog in support of her application for the PCAFPD Scholarship Application. I had the privilege of knowing Dana Cabantog as her current classroom adviser at Arellano University - Juan Sumulong Campus and have witnessed firsthand her dedication, character, and exceptional abilities.

Throughout my time working with her, she has consistently demonstrated qualities of perseverance, academic excellence, and leadership. Last year, she was ranked 42 out of 1136 students in the track and strand with a General Weighted Average (GWA) of 95 for STEM.

She excels not only in studies, maintaining strong academic performance, but also in extracurricular activities, showing initiative, teamwork, and a genuine commitment to her studies. She was also an Associate News Editor of The Arellano Standard Manila and also continuously joined seminars and workshops outside and in collaboration with other schools.

Her passion for learning, combined with her determination to achieve long-term goals, makes her an ideal candidate, and she will thrive. I am confident that the opportunities provided through this program will enable her to maximize her potential and continue to make meaningful contributions.

Thank you for your time and consideration. Please feel free to contact me at 0994565529 or veronicacaliboso@gmail.com.
