Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my honor to recommend Hannah Zion Boy, fondly called Ate Hannah by her peers, whom I had the privilege of mentoring during her Junior High School years at Rizal National High School. Hannah has consistently demonstrated exemplary leadership, often entrusted to lead group activities where she guided her classmates toward success with confidence, responsibility, and skill. What sets her apart is her resilience and perseverance in the face of challenges. Despite financial difficulties, she remained steadfast in her pursuit of education, showing remarkable courage and determination to continue her studies. Her openness to constructive criticism reflects her maturity and eagerness to grow, qualities that have shaped her into an outstanding student and leader. Beyond the classroom, she extended her service to the school community as the Vice President of YES-O for the school year 2024–2025, where she exceeded my expectations as their Club Adviser. Her commitment, diligence, and passion for learning also translated into excellent academic performance, earning her numerous awards and recognitions during their graduation rites. I firmly believe that Hannah possesses the intelligence, perseverance, and character to excel in any endeavor she chooses to pursue.
