To Whom It May Concern,

It is my great honor to recommend Ms. Janice Dayagro as a candidate for your scholarship program. I have known Janice personally and have witnessed her growth not only as a diligent student but also as a kind, compassionate, and responsible daughter.

Janice is a young woman of integrity who demonstrates commitment and determination in her studies. She consistently shows discipline, focus, and the drive to achieve academic excellence. But what truly makes her stand out is her active involvement in community service and volunteerism.

As an active volunteer of the Love Philippines Movement, Janice has participated in numerous outreach activities, feeding programs for children, school supply distributions, and charity events that support underprivileged communities. She has also joined environmental clean-up drives, community building projects, and church-based initiatives that aim to bring hope, encouragement, and tangible help to those in need. Through these acts of service, Janice has proven her compassion, leadership potential, and heart for making a difference in society.

Her selfless contribution to these programs shows that she is not only dedicated to her personal growth but also to the well-being of others. This balance of academic diligence and community involvement speaks volumes about her character.

I firmly believe that Janice embodies the values of a true scholar responsibility, service, and excellence. I am confident that she will use this scholarship as an opportunity to grow further and to give back even more to her community.

I wholeheartedly and without reservation recommend Janice Dayagro for your scholarship program. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Hannah Mae B. Abellana
