Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As Dean of the College of Criminology, I take great pride in recommending Ms. Iahn Mae for your scholarship program. In the years that she has been part of our college, I have seen her not only excel academically but also grow into an inspiring leader and dedicated servant to her peers. In her role as President of the Criminology Society for the academic year 2024–2025, she led with both vision and compassion. Her responsibilities demanded planning, coordination, and persistence—qualities that she displayed with remarkable consistency. One of Iahn Mae's strongest qualities is her ability to balance academic excellence with her commitment to service. Despite the demands of her coursework, she has remained dependable in guiding her organization and actively participating in community-oriented projects, including literacy programs and outreach initiatives. Her leadership is not defined by authority but by a willingness to listen, encourage, and work alongside others. She has proven herself to be both capable and compassionate, and I am confident she will continue to thrive and contribute positively if given this opportunity. I firmly believe that Iahn Mae embodies the values your scholarship seeks to promote.
