Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee,

I am pleased to recommend Celine, who is currently my student in the National Service Training Program (NSTP) at our school. I have had the opportunity to observe her dedication and active participation through our community outreach activities.

As part of our off-campus program, students are assigned to tutor younger children who struggle with reading comprehension. Celine was assigned to a group tasked with guiding 4th to 6th graders in improving their reading skills in Filipino. Throughout this activity, she demonstrated commitment and genuine care. She actively engaged with the children, showing patience and encouragement that helped them improve their understanding and confidence.

What sets Celine apart is her ability to compromise and adapt when faced with difficulties inside the classroom. She remains calm and resourceful, adjusting her approach to meet the varied learning needs of her students. Her attentiveness to each child's unique challenges ensures that every student receives the support they need to succeed.

Moreover, Celine took the initiative to collaborate with her groupmates in designing and arranging educational activities tailored to the children's needs. Her willingness to step up and contribute positively to the group's efforts speaks highly of her teamwork and dedication to community service.

In addition, Celine has been punctual and consistently prepared for all our NSTP meetings, showing great responsibility and respect for her commitments.

Although we have not yet fully completed the first term of this academic year, I firmly believe that Celine possesses the qualities that the PCAFPD scholarship seeks in its scholars.

Celine's efforts have already made a positive impact on the community by helping younger students overcome their challenges in reading, which is essential for their academic success. I am confident that her commitment to service, collaborative spirit, adaptability, and attentiveness make her an excellent candidate for the PCAFPD undergraduate scholarship.

Thank you for considering her application.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Myra Kristine Limbo
Professor in NSTP
