Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is with great confidence that I recommend Bea Han Bi Realin for your esteemed scholarship program. She has consistently demonstrated dedication, responsibility, and a genuine heart for service through her active participation in the Special Youth Volunteer Service Program initiated by the Family Federation of World Peace and Unification Philippines in Antipolo City Rizal. Since the beginning of the program, she has been an integral member, offering her time and effort to serve the community.

Her commitment to community service is more than simple involvement. She has shown initiative, leadership potential, and willingness to inspire her peers to work together toward a common goal. Whether through hands-on participation in cleaning and beautification projects, or by encouraging others to join, Bea Han Bi has embodied the values of teamwork, civic responsibility, and youth leadership.

I believe that these qualities, along with her academic potential and record integrity, make her highly suitable for this scholarship. She is well-prepared to use this opportunity to grow further and contribute meaningfully to both her community and society at large with this scholarship.
