Recommendation

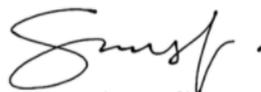

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I have had the pleasure of teaching Juliana Gail for over a year as her subject teacher and adviser at Paradise Farms National High School. Juliana is an exceptionally bright, hardworking, and dedicated student who consistently demonstrates a passion for learning. In my class, she consistently earned top grades, participated actively in discussions, and showed a strong ability to think critically and creatively.

Beyond her academic excellence, Juliana has also made remarkable achievements in campus journalism. She served as the Editor-in-Chief of the school publication Ang Paraiso Gazette, showcasing her strong leadership and writing skills. Her talent in journalism was further recognized when she emerged as Champion in Science and Technology Writing during the Division Secondary Schools Press Conference 2025 in SJDM, Bulacan, and was chosen as a delegate to the Regional Schools Press Conference 2025 in Balanga, Bataan.

What sets Juliana apart is not just her accomplishments but also her character. She is kind, compassionate, and always willing to help others. Juliana takes initiative in group projects, shows excellent leadership skills, and works well with her peers. Her commitment to both academics and extracurricular activities reflects her dedication to excellence and personal growth.
