Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is with great honor that I write this recommendation for my former student, Mr. Nicholas Gabriel Canlas, in support of his application for the PCAFPD Scholarship Program.

As his teacher, I have had the privilege of witnessing Nicholas's growth both academically and personally. He consistently demonstrated outstanding performance in class, ranking among the top students and showing remarkable dedication to his studies. His ability to grasp complex concepts with ease and his perseverance in achieving excellence are truly commendable.

Beyond academics, Nicholas has shown exemplary leadership. He is a natural leader who communicates effectively, inspires his peers, and takes initiative in group activities and school projects. His classmates often look up to him for guidance, and he leads not only with confidence but also with humility and respect.

Nicholas is also deeply committed to service. He actively participates in school and community initiatives, always willing to extend help to others. His sense of responsibility, compassion, and desire to make a positive difference reflect the qualities of a true servant-leader.

I firmly believe that Nicholas Gabriel Canlas possesses the qualities and values that align with the PCAFPD Scholarship Program—academic excellence, leadership, and community service. He is not only deserving of this scholarship but also highly capable of using the opportunity to create meaningful impact in society.

Thank you very much for considering his application. I highly recommend him without reservation.
