Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

In our choir, we have various sections such as soprano, alto, and bass. Queenzel has been a dedicated and talented member of our choir since 2021. She is one of our most trusted vocalists, capable of singing in multiple sections including soprano, alto, and melody. During church fiestas and various liturgical celebrations, Queenzel is always present and actively involved, regardless of her academic schedule. Her unwavering commitment to our ministry is truly admirable. Even when she has no classes, she chooses to dedicate her time and energy to serve the church through music. She attends rehearsals regularly and often takes the initiative to assist in vocal blending, guiding newer members, and ensuring the quality of our performance meets a high standard. Beyond her vocal abilities, Queenzel brings a positive and humble spirit to the group. She is respectful, cooperative, and always willing to help wherever needed. Her leadership by example and genuine dedication inspire others in the choir to give their best as well. We are deeply grateful for Queenzel's continued presence, not only as a talented singer but also as a role model and contributor to the spiritual life of our community. Her service is a true reflection of her faith and love for the church, and we look forward to seeing her grow even more in the years to come.

I am honored to write this letter of recommendation for Queenzel Angco, a devoted and active youth member of St. Isidore Parish. Queenzel has been an invaluable part of our parish community, consistently demonstrating a deep sense of faith, commitment, and service. Queenzel stands out as a young individual who is not only present but truly engaged in the life of the Church. She participates regularly in youth ministry activities, attends Mass faithfully, and is always eager to volunteer her time and energy wherever it is needed. Whether it's helping organize events, assisting in liturgical celebrations, or supporting outreach programs, Queenzel approaches every task with responsibility and a joyful heart. Her positive attitude and willingness to serve have made her a role model among her peers. She is respectful, dependable, and shows genuine care for others, making her a strong example of Christian values in action. I wholeheartedly support and recommend Queenzel Angco for any opportunity or role that seeks a dedicated, faith-filled, and enthusiastic young person. She is a blessing to our parish and a promising leader in our faith community.
