Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I highly recommend Edrian Andaya for the scholarship program because he has consistently shown himself to be a responsible and active student who cooperates well with others, both in school and in our community. He participates actively in projects and activities, fulfilling his tasks with dedication and sincerity, while also showing leadership potential by motivating and supporting his peers. His discipline, reliability, and willingness to contribute make him a deserving candidate who will surely maximize this opportunity for his growth and service to others.
