Recommendation

Dear Scholarship Committee,

As the Barangay Captain of Guinobatan, New Lucena, I have personally witnessed Janelle Fate H. Alfaro's commitment in leading and serving within her community. She has consistently shown responsibility and initiative, especially in maintaining the peace and order within her school. Together with the other officers and members of their school organization she has taken part in ensuring harmonious relationships and respect among students and has been actively involved in promoting discipline in her campus. These efforts reflect her strong sense of service and her willingness to put the needs of others before her own. Beyond these roles, Janelle has demonstrated excellent teamwork and reliability qualities that inspire those around her to do the same and to work sincerity. Especially when she sees someone who needed some help she is always there to help wholeheartedly. Her dedication to both her academics and community responsibilities makes her a deserving candidate for the PCAFPD scholarship. I am confident that with her leadership, integrity, and perseverance, she will continue to bring positive change to her community and serve as a role model for other youth.
