I am Elvira M. Salaum, a teacher at Katipunan National High School, and it is my privilege to recommend my former student, Princess Hannah Rosal, as an applicant for the PCAFPD scholarship. Princess Hannah has consistently proven herself to be an achiever since her early years. She was a consistent MTAP qualifier up to the division level during elementary, which demonstrated her strong ability in mathematics. Because of her credibility and skill in the subject, she later became an officer of the Mathematics Students Association (MSA) in high school.

In addition to mathematics, she has also excelled in the field of journalism. In high school, she won at the Division Schools Press Conference, which qualified her to represent our division at the Regional Schools Press Conference in Cebu as a Science and Technology writer in Filipino. She went on to serve as the news writer of our official school publication, The Siever, and in 2023, she was awarded “Journalist of the Year.” Princess Hannah is also a well-rounded student who has joined various school competitions. She placed 2nd Runner-Up in Miss Intramurals 2020 and 1st Runner-Up in the Mathematics Cosplay during Mathematics Month in 2023. She also represented the school in Sabayang Pagbigkas sa Wikang Pilipino and was awarded “Best in Filipino” during recognition ceremonies.

Her leadership extends beyond academics. She served as the Class Mayor of her section and the Batch Governor of her year level, roles where she showed responsibility, initiative, and the ability to guide her peers effectively. She was also a Girl Scout Cadet in our school, where she led her fellow scouts during scouting rites. She graduated with high honors, a reflection of her discipline, perseverance, and commitment to excellence.

Princess Hannah is intelligent, talented, and dedicated to her goals. She is respectful, hardworking, and eager to learn. I believe she embodies the qualities of a true scholar—
