Recommendation

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee,

It is with great pride and heartfelt conviction that I recommend Ms. Jenny A. Diaz for the PCAFPD Scholarship. In the years I have known Jenny, I have witnessed firsthand the strength of her character, her dedication to academic excellence, and her deep commitment to uplifting those around her.

What sets Jenny apart is not only her resilience in the face of financial challenges but also her determination to use education as a tool for change. Despite limited resources, Jenny has consistently maintained strong academic performance, showing a genuine love for learning and an admirable discipline in balancing schoolwork with other responsibilities. Her achievements are not born merely from talent, but from persistence and an unwavering drive to reach her goals.

Beyond the classroom, Jenny has proven to be a natural leader and a compassionate servant of the community. She has led a cell group consisting of youth, inspiring them to take action and reminding them of the importance of unity and service. I have personally seen how Jenny's initiatives—such as tutoring younger students, and leading fundraising for community needs, especially for dogs—created meaningful impact in our community. Jenny leads not by authority, but by example, earning the trust and respect of both peers and mentors.

The most remarkable quality about Jenny is her heart for service. She has repeatedly expressed a strong desire to give back to the community that raised her, and I truly believe that investing in Jenny's education is also an investment in the betterment of our community and the future generation.

I have no doubt that Jenny embodies the values that PCAFPD seeks in its scholars: academic excellence, leadership, financial need, and, most importantly, service to others. I wholeheartedly recommend Jenny for this scholarship, confident that she will make the most of this opportunity and continue to create ripples of positive change.
