Recommendation:

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my great pleasure to recommend Jacqueline Joy Q. De Guzman for your scholarship program. Over the time I have known her , I have witnessed not only outstanding academic performance but also a genuine dedication to serving others because she was our SSLG president.

Academically, Jacqueline consistently demonstrates curiosity, discipline, and a strong work ethic. She approaches learning with both enthusiasm and determination, often going beyond classroom expectations to deepen understanding and contribute thoughtful insights. This commitment to excellence is reflected in her impressive academic record and the respect she has earned from peers and teachers alike.

Equally remarkable is Jacqueline's dedication to community service. She has invested countless hours in her leadership roles in school, always with her desire to make a meaningful difference. Whether organizing initiatives, volunteering time, or simply lending a helping hand. Jacqueline consistently embodies compassion, leadership, and responsibility.

I am confident that Jacqueline will bring the same passion, integrity, and drive to your scholarship program. She is precisely the kind of individual who not only strives for personal growth but also uplifts others in the process, a quality that makes her an ideal candidate.
