Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

I am happy to recommend Ms. CJ Rivera for this scholarship. As her former Senior High School adviser and teacher, I saw her outstanding qualities that make her a great candidate.

Ms. Rivera's leadership skills are remarkable and were clearly shown during her time as Class President. She is not just an authoritative person; she is a transformative leader who is great at communication and building agreement. Her leadership style is proactive and empathetic. She consistently used her platform to manage class affairs and to advocate for her peers. She addressed their concerns directly with the faculty and administration, which created a more collaborative and responsive school environment.

Ms. Rivera is dedicated to the Lasallian community. She was always an active participant. She focused on projects that made a real difference. Her commitment shows a strong sense of social responsibility and a desire to help those in need which fits well with the values of this institution. Academically, Ms. Rivera is both talented and resilient. She faced significant challenges in past terms. She overcame them with impressive record. Not only did she recover, but she also thrived. She sought academic support and maintained a high level of performance.

In conclusion, CJ Rivera is a mature, hardworking, and high-achieving individual. She has intellect, leadership, and drive to succeed in her future career. She even earned recognition during our recognition rites. She has already made a significant impact on our school community. I highly recommend her for this scholarship. It would be a valuable investment in a promising future leader.
