Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To the PCAFPD Scholarship Committee,

It is with great pride and confidence that I recommend Lincoln Xeree Traquina for the PCAFPD scholarship. I have had the honor of being Lincoln's teacher and mentor from Grades 8 through 12, and throughout those years, she has consistently demonstrated outstanding academic performance, leadership, and a deep commitment to serving her community.

Lincoln is an exceptional student whose intellectual curiosity and dedication to learning have always stood out. Her academic achievements are impressive, most notably her victory at the Regional Science and Technology Fair, where she showed not only her scientific acumen but also her creativity and perseverance. This accomplishment is a testament to her ability to excel under pressure and her passion for innovation.

Beyond academics, Lincoln is a natural leader. She has taken initiative in various school activities, often stepping up to organize, guide, and inspire her peers. Whether she is leading a classroom project or volunteering in our yearly SPARKS program, Lincoln consistently shows maturity, responsibility, and compassion. Her resilience and determination to pursue higher education and contribute meaningfully to society are truly admirable. She embodies the values that PCAFPD seeks in its scholars: excellence, leadership, and a heart for service. I wholeheartedly endorse Lincoln Xeree Traquina's application and believe she will thrive as a PCAFPD scholar.
