Recommendation

I am writing to enthusiastically recommend Ms. Loraine Jean B. Bueza for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I have had the pleasure of knowing Loraine as her Class Adviser and Subject Teacher in Grade 12 STEM-A at Tabaco National High School.

Loraine is an exceptionally engaged and diligent student who stands out not just for her academic performance but for her remarkable commitment to school service and leadership. Loraine possesses a rare blend of organizational talent and genuine commitment to her peers. She currently serves as the Class Public Information Officer (PIO) for our advisory class, where she handles communication effectively and responsibly.

Beyond her class duties, Loraine holds significant responsibilities in various school organizations, showcasing her versatility and ability to manage multiple high-stakes roles:

- § Treasurer of the Students' Organizational League for Advancement in Research (SOLAR), a position that requires trust, meticulous attention to detail, and accountability.
- § Active member of DIALECTICA: TNHS Debate Society, demonstrating her strong critical thinking and communication skills.
- § Involved in the TNHS Learner Government Commission on Elections and Appointments, highlighting her dedication to democratic processes and school governance.
- § A key contributor to The Vanguard, the school's publishing team, where she applies excellent writing and organizational skills.

Loraine's extensive extracurricular involvement is a clear indicator of her initiative, time-management skills, and sense of community. She doesn't just join organizations; she takes on leadership and core operational roles, indicating that her involvement is driven by a genuine desire to contribute and make a tangible impact. Her dedication to both the research league and the publishing team, alongside her governmental roles, illustrates a well-rounded and deeply thoughtful individual ready to take on the challenges of higher education.

I am confident that Loraine Jean Bueza possesses the academic discipline, leadership potential, and commitment to service that the PCAFPD scholarship seeks to support. She is an outstanding candidate who will undoubtedly utilize this scholarship opportunity to excel in her chosen field and become a valuable contributor to society.

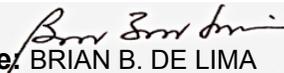

I highly recommend Ms. Bueza without reservation. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you require any further information.

Sincerely,
