Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pride that I write this letter of recommendation for Izabel C. Gohol in support of her application for a Peace Corps Alumni Foundation for Philippine Development (PCAFPD) scholarship. As the ABM Strand Coordinator and her subject teacher in Fundamentals of Accountancy, Business, and Management 1 and Fundamentals of Accountancy, Business, and Management 2, I have had the privilege of witnessing her blossom into one of the most remarkable students I have encountered.

Meeting her for the first time back when she was in 11th Grade, Izabel was the timid girl in class, who gave wide-doe eyes whenever she wants to speak in class. She was not the type who aggressively fights for her slot to be called in class, instead she gave you the body language, the look that says "I have an idea, sir, and I want to give it a shot." Surprisingly, she blossomed into a frontliner in her senior year. She became the strand's go-to person every time the event host asks for a representative from each strand. She does not only answer the questions, but she also takes it with humor. This is what separate Izabel from others. She is someone who excels academically, but maintains a likeable personality.

Academically, Izabel consistently demonstrates excellence. Her grasp of complex accounting principles is not only impressive but also indicative of her analytical mind and disciplined study habits. She approaches each lesson with curiosity and rigor, often going beyond what is required to deepen her understanding. Her performance in class is consistently outstanding, and her intellectual growth over time has been nothing short of inspiring. She also takes time to extend help to her classmates who are in need of extra lecture, and true enough, a number of her classmates gave her credits for putting in the effort of explaining complex lessons to them.

Beyond academics, she shines as a natural leader. Whether in group activities or inter-strand competitions, she steps up with confidence, clarity, and purpose. Her ability to organize, motivate, and guide her peers has led to numerous successful feats for our strand. Yet what sets her apart is her humility. She is just as effective as a follower as she is a leader. She knows when to take the lead and when to support others, always prioritizing the team's success over personal recognition.

Her interpersonal skills are equally commendable. Izabel fosters genuine connections with her classmates, fellow ABM students, and even those from other strands. She is well-respected by her peers and admired by teachers for her respectful demeanor, collaborative spirit, and positive attitude. Her presence in any group elevates the dynamic, creating an environment of mutual respect and shared purpose.

In every sense, Izabel embodies the qualities of a scholar: intellect, integrity, leadership, and empathy. I am confident that she will not only meet but exceed the expectations of any scholarship program. She is a rare gem, and I wholeheartedly recommend her without reservation.
