Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

As the Publicity and Information Officer of Kabataan Partylist, I directly oversee the committee where Kristine is a member. While she has not yet taken on a formal leadership role, I can say she has already demonstrated initiative, dependability, and a genuine commitment to our collective work.

One notable contribution was her work on a publication material calling for participants to attend our educational discussion about the Anatomy of Philippine Politics which discusses in depth the kind of rotten system that enables corruption within the government. Kristine's skill in crafting impactful pubmats, combined with her openness to feedback, proved invaluable. The material she produced significantly boosted attendance of our discussion, allowing us to engage more youth in a timely and relevant conversation on government accountability.

Her reliability and willingness to take initiative, even in tasks outside her comfort zone, show qualities of a budding leader. Kristine does not hesitate to offer her time and skills for the good of the team, and her efforts have made a clear impact on our organizing work.

Beyond her specific contributions, Kristine's decision to join Kabataan Partylist already speaks volumes of her commitment to advancing the politics of hope and change amidst the prevailing corruption and challenges in our society. She is deeply invested in raising awareness among her peers about the realities faced by our people, and I believe her potential to grow further as a community leader is undeniable.

I wholeheartedly recommend Kristine Escala as a scholar of PCAFPD. I believe her skills, initiative, and dedication to community service embody the values the scholarship seeks to uphold.
