Recommendation

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Sittie Aisha Tumog for the PCAFPD Scholarship. I have had the privilege of knowing and mentoring Sittie Aisha in both her academic and community endeavors, and I can attest to her outstanding qualities as a student and leader.

Sittie Aisha has consistently demonstrated academic diligence and intellectual curiosity. She excels in her studies, balancing rigorous coursework with a strong commitment to extracurricular and community activities. Her perseverance and determination serve as an inspiration to her peers.

Beyond academics, Sittie Aisha has shown remarkable leadership skills. She takes initiative in group projects, mentors younger students, and contributes actively to school and community programs. Her involvement in community service reflects her compassion and dedication to uplifting others, particularly in creating opportunities for underprivileged members of society.

What makes Sittie Aisha stand out is her character—she is humble, respectful, and highly dependable. Despite financial challenges, she has maintained focus on her goals and aspires to use her education as a tool for creating positive change in her community.

I am confident that Sittie Aisha Tumog embodies the values and vision of the PCAFPD Scholarship. She has the academic potential, leadership qualities, and strong sense of social responsibility that make her an excellent candidate for this opportunity.
