Recommendation

PCAFPD scholars are chosen on the basis of their financial need, academic performance, and commitment to community service and leadership. As the applicant's reference, please describe the applicant's demonstrated leadership skills, accomplishments, and impacts on your community and any other relevant information you feel the committee should know about the applicant.

It is my privilege to recommend Karl Matthew Joseph C. Ravalo, former President of the Supreme Secondary Learners Government (SSLG) of Juan Sumulong High School, in support of his application for the PCAFPD scholarship.

As Karl's SSLG adviser, I had the opportunity to watch how he developed as a student leader. He led the group with great dedication, fairness, and a strong sense of obligation to his classmates. His leadership was demonstrated by his ability to manage projects well, promote cooperation among his peers, and ensure that every endeavour benefited both his school and his community.

Beyond his accomplishments, what sets Karl apart is his character. He has consistently shown restraint, humility, and a willingness to lend a hand even when no recognition is given. I've seen him take on challenges head-on and continually make the best choice for all of the students. His leadership had a lasting impact on both the SSLG and the school's service culture.

I believe Karl is a truly deserving candidate for the PCAFPD scholarship. His proven leadership, strong values, and unwavering commitment to community service will enable him to make meaningful contributions in the future. Please feel free to contact me should you need further information.
